

2/14/11 Happy Valentine's Day!

Highlighted Opportunities

Editor-The Dover Post

GateHouse Media Delaware is seeking a news editor with demonstrated skills in both digital and print media. The editor will lead the newsroom at GateHouse Media Delaware's flagship publication, the Dover Post. We practice non-linear storytelling, and are committed to evolving our presence on the Web.

Editor's responsibilities will include: - Aid reporters in developing innovative storytelling methods and practices both in print and online - Coordinate between departments to produce attractive, organized print products including special sections - Enforce deadlines both for print and online The editor needs to: - Champion our web-first reporting strategy - Develop in-depth reporting packages with multiple print and online layers - Be a content editor, as well as a copy editor - Promote change and growth within the newsroom - Have proven communication skills, for colleagues and external customer service. - Monitor our competition and ensure we're leading the news, not following it - Find creative alternatives for nonlinear storytelling - Act as a mentor and coach for a staff with diverse experience

To qualify: We prefer local candidates with knowledge of Dover and the surrounding area. Applicants should have at least two years of professional newsroom experience, and prior leadership experience is strongly preferred. How to apply: Only e-mail applications will be accepted. Prospective candidates should send a resume, relevant work samples and cover letter. Please include specific examples of challenges you've faced as an editor or reporter, and changes you've implemented in your newsroom. Only applicants selected for interviews will be contacted. The editor position offers a competitive salary, excellent benefits package, and career progression possibilities. Please e-mail your applications to: Carlene Peterson Executive editor GateHouse Media Delaware carlene.peterson@doverpost.com
